

MATICE VELEHRADSKÁ

DADDY Stojan!

FROM THE "BOOKS OF PRAYERS TO THE SERVANT OF GOD ANTONÍN CYRIL STOJAN" IN THE ROYAL CHAPEL OF THE VELEHRAD BASILICA IN 1990-2023.

MATICE VELEHRADSKÁ

Between 1990 and 2023, pilgrims to Velehrad have filled thirteen books with their prayers and appeals addressed in trust to Antonín Cyril Stojan as a father, generous giver, and intercessor.

giver, and intercessor. These books are thus an eloquent testimony to the relationship of Moravian as well as Czech and Slovak Christians with this venerable shepherd, while also bearing witness to his enduring legacy.

PARTICIPANTS OF SPIRITUAL EXERCISES AT STOJANOV

come to the Stojan's tomb to express their gratitude for his establishment of the Stojanov Retreat House, which continues to serve as a "workshop of the inner man" even a century after its founding. Among other intentions, they pray for the fruitful outcomes of their periods of reflection and concentration during the spiritual exercises:

PILGRIMS ON FOOT

prepare themselves to visit Velehrad through walking and praying. Spiritually and by walking they connect Svatý Hostýn and Velehrad - both places cherished by Antonín Cyril Stojan, where he himself "used to bring people". Father Jan Peňáz, a devoted pilgrim himself, became the pilgrims' spokesman at the tomb of A. C. Stojan:

PRAYERS FOR HEALTH

are among the most frequent. Pilgrims offer them through the intercession of A. C. Stojan for themselves as well as for their loved ones. From these times, Christians cry out to the eternity to God who hears and is silent, yet who, in any case, shares their pain and suffers with them. Stojan himself meditated on the mystery of the cross:

PRAYERS FOR FAITH AND CONVERSION

Faith is a gift, multiplying and flourishing within a community. That is why pilgrims ask for the gift of faith and a change of mind-set through the intercession of Archbishop Stojan. Their appeals extend not only for themselves, but particularly for their loved ones:

POLITICS

Intercession is also being asked from A. C. Stojan in order to bring about a change in the political culture of our nation. This confidence in his understanding arises from Stojan's active involvement in politics, where he demonstrated a strong focus on social issues:

PRAYERS FOR BEATIFICATION AND EXPRESSIONS OF TRUST

Many pilgrims express their earnest desire for the prompt beatification of A. C. Stojan together with their conviction that this is only a formal recognition of what they believe and how it corresponds to their private veneration. They convey an intimate relationship to Antonín Cyril Stojan:

CONCLUSION

A NEBO NAVAZAT ...

"... And we can start over or follow up..."

Just as the selected prayers shared here are only a fraction of the thousands of entries within the "Books of Prayers", all the written records represent only a faint echo of the words whispered by pilgrims in their hearts in front of the tomb of A. C. Stojan in the Royal Chapel of the Velehrad Basilica.

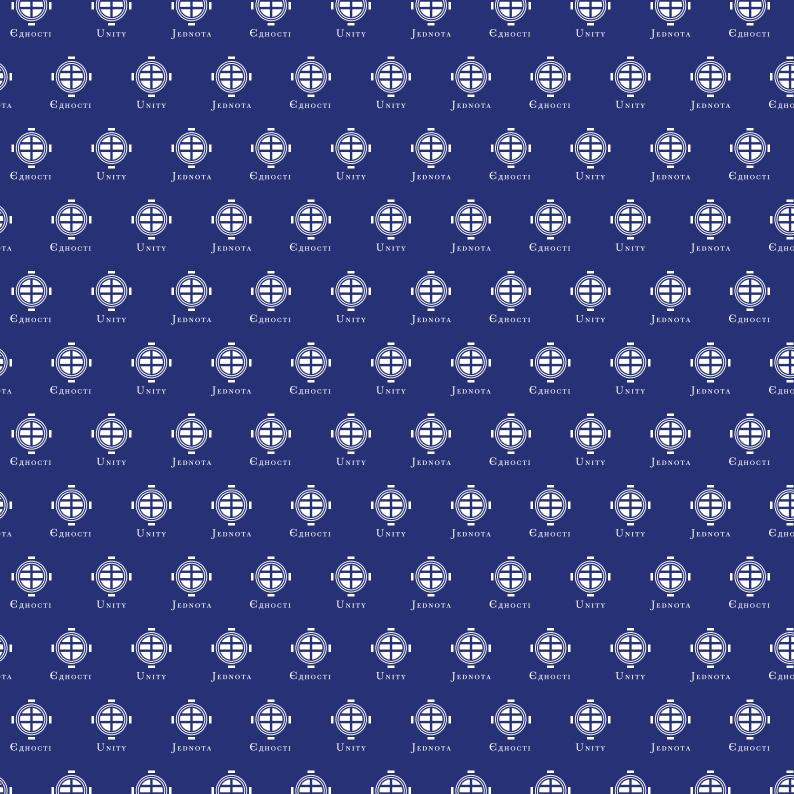

Among many others, we can emphasize here the answer to numerous public and private prayers for the healing of Archbishop Jan Graubner, who at the time was the Archbishop of Olomouc, through the intercession of A. C. Stojan: he not only survived a critical condition caused by coronavirus, but he was completely healed and in a short time he became the Primate of the Czech Church. Bishop Josef Hrdlička, Auxiliary of Olomouc, reflects: "For a hundred years, our people have been waiting for the beatification of Daddy Stojan, and this is a remarkable sign. The current Holy Father Francis also wholeheartedly stands on the side of the poorest and most needy people on this planet (just as Archbishop Stojan stood in his era and in his sphere of influence). This could serve as a unique story for those who are to evaluate this answered prayers." May it happen!
